On behalf of Scholars Conferences, I am pleased to formally invite you to join us as a speaker at the "Asia-Pacific Advanced Nursing and Leadership Summit", scheduled to take place on September 15-17, 2025 at Singapore.

The theme of this year's conference is "Nursing Leadership in Action: Challenges, Solutions, and Opportunities" and We would also like to highlight that your abstract entitled "Your expertise and iSight in kidney transplant" has been approved for an oral presentation.

We believe that your expertise in the field will be an invaluable contribution to the discussions and sessions. We are confident that your presentation will engage and inspire our attendees, and we would be honored to have you share your insights and experiences with our audience.
