On behalf of Scholars Conferences, I am pleased to formally invite you to join us as a speaker at the "Global Summit on Physiotherapy, Physical Rehabilitation & Sports Medicine", scheduled to take place on July 07-08, 2025 at Prague, Czech Republic.

The theme of this year's conference is "Global Perspectives: Shaping the Future of Physiotherapy and Sports Medicine" and We would also like to highlight that your abstract entitled "Effects of eccentric exercises with and without dry needling approaches at the patients with chronic rotator cuff tendinopathy" has been approved for an oral presentation.

We believe that your expertise in the field will be an invaluable contribution to the discussions and sessions. We are confident that your presentation will engage and inspire our attendees, and we would be honored to have you share your insights and experiences with our audience.
